From the Headteacher

Our nursery children enjoyed a wonderful visit to the Diana Memorial Playground on Friday last week. Huge thanks to our nursery staff for organising this experience for the children. Thanks also to the nursery parents who came along and supported the trip.

SATs week is finally here next week for our children in Y6, who sit formal, timetabled tests next week. They have been working very hard and I am sure they will all do their best. We wish them every success.

On Friday we say goodbye to Ms Lowney who starts her maternity leave. We wish her and her partner best wishes for their new arrival and look forward to hearing news of names etc. later this term.

Also coming home with this edition of the buzz are our confirmed term dates for the next academic year. This also lists 4 of our 5 INSET days that have been scheduled. The 5th INSET day is still to be decided as this may be used for local elections should there be any.

Current News

From the School Office
